

One Hundred Nineteenth Congress
Committee on Homeland Security
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

April 16, 2025

Mr. Wayne Ho
President and Chief Executive Officer
Chinese-American Planning Council
45 Suffolk Street
New York, NY 10002

Dear Mr. Ho:

The Committee on Homeland Security (Committee) is investigating the potential use of federal funds by non-government organizations (NGOs) to facilitate illegal immigration. On April 3, 2025, the Oversight Project released an undercover video of the Chinese-American Planning Council (CPC) purportedly conducting a “training” session on how to “evade” federal immigration enforcement efforts.¹ Since 2022, CPC was awarded $1,453,070.20 in U.S. taxpayer-funded federal grants during the Biden-Harris Administration. Public records indicate that CPC received at least $925,929.69 of the total awarded amount.² The Committee is deeply concerned that CPC and other NGOs that receive taxpayer dollars may be advising or training illegal aliens on strategies to avoid cooperation with immigration officials.

In the undercover video, Ms. Carlyn Cowen, CPC’s Chief Policy and Public Affairs Officer, is seen explaining strategies for avoiding and potentially impeding immigration officials during a seminar in New York.³ Ms. Cowen advises her audience, among other suggestions, that “hardening your physical space,” is a priority in preparing for potential encounters with immigration officials. Similarly, Ms. Janice Northia, a Community Engagement Manager from the New York Immigration Coalition, explained to the audience how to identify and minimize contact with immigration officials.⁴

⁴ Oversight Project, supra note 1.

Approximately fifty-five percent of CPC's revenue comes from federal and state government grants.⁵ While CPC was awarded more than $1.4 million in direct federal grants from the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) since 2022,⁶ CPC may have received additional federal funding awarded through New York. For example, between June 30, 2022 and June 30, 2023, CPC received at least $4,754,187.00 in HHS-funded awards passed through various programs operated by New York and the City of New York.⁷

Moreover, since 2020, New York received over $123 million in Emergency Food and Shelter Program (EFSP) funding from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).⁸ Additionally, FEMA allocated and distributed $59,302,125.07 to the City of New York for FY2024 through its Shelter and Services Program (SSP)-Allocated program⁹ and $22,169,838.00 to the City of New York for FY2024 through its SSP-Competitive program.¹⁰

New York has received substantial federal funding related to services for illegal aliens released by federal immigration officers. While CPC has an apparent interest in assisting illegal aliens in avoiding federal immigration enforcement, it is unclear whether any of its publicly reported government funding originated from the EFSP or SSP programs. The Committee, therefore, seeks a full accounting of federal funds awarded to CPC either directly or indirectly to ensure compliance with federal law.

In recent years, CPC reported significant revenue levels, especially since 2021. For example, from fiscal years 2011 to 2016, CPC reported an average revenue of approximately $21.8 million. From fiscal years 2017 to 2020, CPC reported an average revenue of about $30.9 million. In fiscal year 2021, however, CPC reported a revenue of about $50.1 million, which then nearly doubled to $97.4 million in fiscal year 2022.¹¹ Meanwhile, leading up to 2021, CPC advocated for "clemency and parole to all [illegal] immigrants"¹² and supported an organization dedicated to abolishing U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement.¹³
